

DESERT ISLAND DISCS EVENING

with Sir Richard Stilgoe

Dinner and Entertainment, 12th October 2021, at Tandridge Golf Club

Geoffrey Sanderson will interview our 'Castaway', Sir Richard Stilgoe, who has had a fascinating career in music and stage, TV and Radio. Early performances on BBC's Nationwide early evenings, BBC's That's Life with Ester Rantzen and later a double act with Peter Skellern which toured the country.

His international fame came from musicals he helped to write with Andrew Lloyd-Webber include Cats and Starlight Express. He established the Orpheus Centre in nearby Godstone to help disabled young people to achieve independent lives associated with music and the arts. Sir Richard has lived in the area since the eighties. He has always had a keen interest in cricket and sailing.

A glass of Prosecco will be served on arrival followed by a superb three-course dinner, served to your table.

6.30pm drinks reception followed by dinner from 7.15pm

£70.00 per head for members, £80 per head for guests

Dress Code: Jackets or Business Suits

A contribution from the ticket price will be made to the Orpheus Centre.
